DANGER OF CHOLERA

THE QUARANTINE STATION TO BE PLACED IN OPERATION.

Arranging for the Reception of and Honor to the Davis Remains at Raleigh-Salaries of City Officers Reduced.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., May 5 .- Governor Carr directs that the $20,000 appropriation for the State Quarantine Station at Southport be made at once available, the State Board of Health certifying that there is imminent danger of cholera visiting Wilmington or other ports of North Carolina. Wilmington gives $5,000 and will maintain the station. The work of preparing the latter begins at once. Under the law all suspect ed vessels arriving at any port in North Carouna are to be sent to this station.

The Confederate Veteran's Association The Confederate Veteran's Association State executive Committee met to-day at the Executive Office—E. D. Hall presiding. Governor Carr and Mayor Badger attended and acted with it. Of the Committee F. H. Busbee, S. A. Ashe, and W. C. Stronach were also present. Governor Carr and Colonel Hall were requested to appoint an escort of honor to meet the remains of Hon. Jefferson Davis at Charlotte May 30th and act during the passage through the State and the stay at Baleigh. Colonel Hall and members of the Executive Committee will serve as part of the execut. The remainder will be designated later

ON PROGRAMME.

President Hall was requested to appoint a committee on programme, its duty being to select an orator and make all necessary preparations, including music and the military escort, Governor Carr. Thomas S. Kenan, F. H. Bushee, Mayor Badger, W. C. Stronach, and S. A. Ashe were appointed as the committee. Major-General R. F. Hoke was suggested as chief marshal, but the committee learning he could not serve unanimously chose Thomas S. Kenan, He was given authority to appoint aides. Colonel Hall was requested to issue a call to the Confederate veterans and other citizens of North Carolina urging them to pay appropriate honors to the remissioning their passage through the State and while at Ralegn.

The Grand Ledge of Odd-Fellows meets before next Monday evening. The slay afternoon the three lodges of this city will give the visiting Odd-Fellows a big barbecue at the State Fair-Grounds. To this many ladies will be invited.

The Hoard of Aldermen of Raleigh this evening elected W. B. Hutchings Tax Collector. The salaries of several officials were reduced. The city is greatly in need of money, and this will be the case until taxes begin to come in, which will be in the autumn.

WITH LARGE LOT ON SOUTH TRIED STREET, DESIGNATED AS NO. 106, WITH BRICK STABLE IN REAR.

THURSDAY, MAY 11, 1893.

Archer, A. W., In Chancery Court City of Richmond.
Brown, Trustee, and a'a., Percee entered April 26, 1893. at 6 o'cleek P. M., the PROPERTY described in said decree as ALL THAT LOT OF GROUND in the city of Richmond, with BRICK DWELLING thereon, No. 108 south Third street, trenting on the west side of Third street 38 feet, more or less, between Cary and Canal streets, and running back westward between parallel lines 130 feet to an alley in the rear, bounded on the north by the lot of thenry Bodeker's cetate, and on the south by the rearleace of Peter A. Subject, Esq., and neing the same to of land where of Virginia Nott died seized and which was devised by her last will and testement.

This property is located in one of the most destrable neighborhoods in the city, on the beautiful street leading out to Gamble's Fark, and very convenient to business and churches.

Thems: One-fourth cash, and the residue in three equal instalments at six, tweive, and eighteen months for notes, with 6 per cent. Interest added from day of sale, and the title related until the whole purchase-money is paid and a conveyance ordered by the court.

JAMES ALSTON CABELL. Special R. L. MONTAGUE,

I, Charles W. Goddin, Clerk of the sald court, the above PROPERTY, described in said decree as follows:

"The lot of land, with improvements thereon in the city of kichmond on the north side of Franklin street between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh street, commencing on the north side of Franklin street at the distance of 80 feet from the east line of Twenty-sixth street, thence eastwardly, and fronting on the north line of Franklin street 60 FEET, and running back at right angles between parallel lines 150 feet to an alley 15 feet wide."

The nearness of this property to LIBBY-HILL PARK and its most excellent neighborhood makes it very desirable as a residence.

TEMES: One third cash and the romainder on a credit of six, twelve, and eighteen months, 6 per cent, interest, and ittie retained until all the purchase-money is paid and a conveyance ordered by the Court.
